

A message from your Conservative Eastleigh Borough Election Candidates

Dear Residents,

We are very grateful for all of the support that we received in the May 2016 local elections. Eastleigh Borough Council often faces little or no opposition to plans that have a major effect on our daily lives. We are changing that. We are against hostile developments that ignore the concerns of our communities.

We need a fresh council, with new leadership that actually listens to residents and clearly represents them. For too long, Eastleigh Borough Council has hidden their decision making from the people that they are elected to represent. We would change that.

Your Conservative Council candidates are local. We understand what people here really care about: tackling traffic, creating jobs, protecting our schools and many more issues.

Your Councillors should be there to help whatever your political leaning. This is exactly what we will do and Eastleigh Conservatives Cllr Jerry Hall in Hedge End and Cllr Elizabeth Lear in Hamble are doing exactly that.

Ian, Sheelagh, Graham and Steph - some of your Conservative Candidates
